

HOME SUPPORT SERVICES

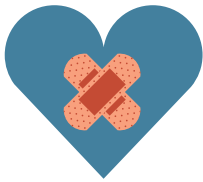

Whether you've noticed you don't have the energy to care for yourself and your home like you used to, or you're in need of some help to care for an elderly or disabled loved one, JFSE is here to help. Our team of caregivers are dedicated to the wellness of our clients, and thanks to our holistic

- Accessible: we are able to connect with easily, and we can quickly mobilize in an emergency situation.

- Compassionate: aging and decreased mobility can lead to isolation and depression, and our care takers understand that good care is also about a holistic, warm approach.

- Thoroughly Trained: from First Aid to Contagious Disease Protocol, through Trauma and Dementia Informed, to the latest developments and technology in home care, we ensure our team is educated and aware with our standardized training courses.

- Private: we are mindful of the importance of privacy and discretion is integral to our service.

- Diverse Expertise: whether a client is at risk for bed sores or boredom, we work hard with families to ensure the right care taker has been placed.
